

2026

Translational Science Immersion (TSI) Program

Program Information

- 10-week full-time (40 hours/week) immersion program May 26 - July 31, 2026 with an option to continue working part-time through the fall
- Engage in translational science research
- Work with a mentor on an ongoing, funded research project
- Orientation and required training in the protection of human subjects and the responsible conduct of research
- Meet with community members who partner with academics in research
- Classroom work and team projects
- Participating students will be hired as temporary U-M employees and paid a salary

Eligibility

- Graduating college seniors, master's degree students, and health professions degree students
- Students enrolled in any health-related programs, such as biomedical engineering, dentistry, kinesiology, medicine, nursing, pharmacy, public health, and social work
- Must be a U.S. citizen or U.S. permanent resident

Learn More, Attend an Info Session, and Apply

DEADLINE to Apply: January 28, 2026

michr-edu@umich.edu

WANT TO LEARN MORE? Register for an information session:
<https://forms.gle/xEoZ8d9NwJRQaDXG7>

APPLY HERE

